I am for the child™

Celebrating

lives lifted since 1989.

2012-13 Highlights:

- Peer Coordinators lead the way toward Vision 2020

This fiscal year CASA served 443 of the approximately 1,000 abused and neglected children who need a Court Appointed Special Advocate. That means more than 550 children are waiting for a CASA who will fight for their rights. We have long had the dream to close this "gap" and serve every child in need.

PC Jim Campbell with new CASA Steve Lente

In 2013 CASA positioned itself to realize this vision by shifting to a new, proven program model. We are now drawing on the experience and expertise of long-term CASA volunteers to serve as "peer coordinators" providing mentorship, coaching, and support all new volunteers on their cases. This capacity-building volunteer leadership model will double our volunteer base, enabling us to serve every child, every day, every year by the year 2020, "Vision 20/20."

The first team of Peer Coordinators below were trained and began their new leadership role in March of 2013:

Marilyn Bardash
Kathy Bohanon

I am for the child™

- Volunteers create Life Long Links for foster youth:

Every time a child relocates they lose an average of 10 relationships. Imagine what it's like for a child in foster care who moves multiple times and is placed with different caretakers along the way. Through the Life Long Links Program CASA volunteers are searching nationwide to locate and connect extended family and other supportive people to children in the foster care system. The idea is to build a network of stable, caring connections and to ensure safe and permanent homes for kids more expediently.

CASA Jane Hegstrom at the Hanger with Kiaya.

- The Hanger store opens:

The Hanger fulfills the need for clothing and personal items for local teens who are living in the foster care system. Foster teens "shop" the store free of charge; they also have the opportunity gain valuable work experience and learn life skills through free workshops.

- Supervised Exchange and Parenting Time Program expands to Teller County

SEPT program services for Teller County opened in April with two locations including the Community Partnership Family Resource Center in Divide, and The Aspen Mine Center in Cripple Creek.

The SEPT programs in El Paso and Teller counties protects children from witnessing parental disputes and keeps them out of the middle of the conflict. Trained volunteers oversee the transfer of children from one parent to another in conflictive custody or domestic violence cases. Parents ordered into supervised parenting time are able to spend time with their children in a setting managed by CASA staff and volunteers.

Operational efficiencies have lowered our cost to serve a child by 17% over the past 5 years.

CASA named one of 10 Charities Worth Watching by Charity Navigator, America's largest independent charity evaluator.

We are deeply grateful to our many partners... to view or download a complete report, including full lists of donors and volunteers, please visit casappr.org or call us at 447-9898.

25 FACES OF CASA

CASA volunteers, dedicated program staff, board members, supporters, judges, and young people whose lives have been set on a better course by a committed volunteer... these are the faces of CASA of the Pikes Peak Region. In celebration of our 25th year of advocacy for children in El Paso and Teller counties, we are launching the "25 Faces of CASA." Through the year, we'll be sharing stories of the people who are lifting the lives of abused and neglected children... people like Karen Hilborn.

Karen is CASA's longest-term volunteer with 22 years of compassionate advocacy to over 50 children. One of her most memorable cases involved eight kids who had suffered sexual and physical abuse. One of the boys endured being locked in the basement with a dog's shock collar around his neck to prevent him from escaping. Karen spent hundreds of hours with these children, advocating for parental rights to be terminated, advocating to keep the kids together in foster care, advocating for the therapy and support they needed to heal from their trauma, and ultimately for their safe, permanent placement with a loving adoptive family.
